Henk van de Vinkenhof is a hard bull with good feet & legs and nice muscularity. This MRIJ bull has top families in his pedigree. On top of that knows Henk a couple of good “production”-bulls in his pedigree.

Sire Mathador 12 origins from a superb Berend-daughter Marian 88. This super productive cow is dam and granddam of several very good proven bulls (the Mathador bulls). The daughters of Mathador 12 are average of stature, have good udders with good muscularity. Besides this he inherits a lot of milk, nice in proportion fat/protein percentages and very good longevity.

The dam of Henk, the Danielle-family, is the best cow-family on the farm. Every year realized the Danielle-family super lactations with as result that the family is ranked to the top,as well on their own herd as on national level. This family produces lactations with a lot of milk, nice in proportion fat/ protein percentages and very high protein percentage. The Danielle-family shows also very good development with very good fertility and longevity.
