If you are looking for a Red Holstein bull you can rely on to deliver every time, then look no further than our American bull Ja-Bob Rex-PP-Red (Jax x Durable x Vince). Why? Well, one of the reasons is that he boasts a pedigree different to all the others. And, thanks to his round, balanced figures (aAa 546), Rex-PP-Red can ensure a fine correction to frames in the majority of the cow population. But Rex-PP-Red has a whole lot more to his name. He is the proud possessor of the gene for A2/A2 milk and the gene for homozygous polled cattle (all his descendants are polled). In brief, you would be hard pushed to find a more complete and easier to use bull than Rex-PP-Red.

Part of the out of the ordinary blood line carried by Rex-PP-Red was inherited from his sire Jax (Colt P x Shottle). This red-and-white bull from the USA has a dam with 88 points, a grand dam with 94 points and a great grand dam ranking 96 points - a maternal line that excels in conformation scores. His conformation scores are high on paper, particularly for udders and legs. But he is equally dependable for durability, udder health and fertility traits.

As already mentioned, the maternal line of Rex-PP-Red stands out for its appearance. With Glendridge Citation Roxy (EX 97), the "Queen of the..."
