The dark red Roblox Red is a tall, wide-built bull with plenty of balance. The family behind Roblox Red is no stranger to K.I. Samen. As a Rubels son out of the full sister to Movistar, the next generation of logically bred Massias is emerging once again.

The somewhat alternative sire line for Red Holsteins — featuring Novastar, Solero and Oman — offers opportunities and fresh possibilities within Red Holstein breeding. The next dam is Apina Massia 61 (VG 85), the full sister to breeding bull Apina Curtis.

With fat percentages well above 5% and protein percentages around 4%, the Massia family continues time and again to prove highly interesting for genetic improvement.
