VVH Domax Red (Dominator x Classic x Lentini) is a well developed bull facilitated with good feet & legs and descending from one of Netherlands most famous red & white cow families; the Massia's. Where originally the Massia's were known for very productive cows with high percentages and average conformation, is especially the conformation level in this line heavily improved over the last years. Also at Domax Red where we can even talk about very good conformation.

Dominator, sire of Domax Red, origins from a great cow family with especially superb conformation. Dominator's dam line consists of an excellent dam and granddam and belongs to Switzerlands best families. Via dam sire Patron and great grandsire Stardust he also knows a few outcross bulls in his pedigree. Dominator is a real all-round bull. He combines a fine production with very good conformation (very good udders) and fine management traits.

The Massia's, the dam line of Domax Red, are the example of hard working cows. Productive (high percentages), although the final finishing touch in their conformation is lacking often. Until the progeny out of the flush of Massia 14 with the German red factor bull Lentini where born. We talk about Massia 20 (VG 89) and Massia 21 (EX 90). The last mentioned one is the dam...
