Are components your priority when selecting a bull? Then Speedway Red PP ticks the right boxes. His dam and grand dam produce around 5% fat and almost 4% protein. His half-sisters and other family members also have same production traits. This bull makes an interesting addition, especially for the polled segment. Speedway Red PP is the only homozygous son of Warsi 1311 P. His grand dam Warsi 1112 unfortunately died too young, but his 3rd dam actually needs little introduction. Warsi 879 (EX 93) was very successful at many regional and national classifications, even in the oldest age categories. Her rich legacy of daughters (and sons like Camino Red) prove her excellence as a good brood cow.
